Where to stay and eat along the Cammino del Salento

(one Passaporto del Pellegrino per person)

WELCOME TO THE CAMMINO DEL SALENTO

The Cammino del Salento is the result of extensive research, planning and care for the local area.

Identifying the route was no easy task. We studied the area, searching for roads, footpaths and routes that would allow us to create an itinerary that was as beautiful, safe and interesting as possible, capable of showcasing Salento through its landscapes, villages, coastline and natural surroundings.

But creating a trail was only the beginning.

A route is not something that is created once and remains unchanged over time. It requires daily attention, checks and improvements. We continue to monitor the route, gather feedback, take action where necessary and constantly improve the experience for walkers.

Signposting also requires ongoing work: the route must be checked, maintained and, where necessary, re-signposted. The condition of the paths can change; there may be roadworks, alterations to the landscape, or signs that are damaged or removed.

This is why the Cammino del Salento is a constantly evolving project.

A JOB THAT CONTINUES EVERY DAY

Every day we receive messages, enquiries and reports from walkers.

We offer assistance before departure and along the route, helping those who need information on the stages, the trails, accommodation, transport or any difficulties encountered along the Way.

We listen to walkers' experiences, gather suggestions and reports, and use this information to keep improving the route and our services.

Behind the Cammino del Salento, therefore, lies a daily effort, often unseen by those walking the trail, but essential in enabling thousands of people to enjoy this experience independently and with greater peace of mind.

THE PASSAPORTO DEL PELLEGRINO

The Passaporto del Pellegrino is not simply a memento of the journey.

It is a tool designed to accompany walkers along the route and makes a tangible contribution to the growth and maintenance of the project.

Inside, you can collect stamps from each stage and preserve memories of your journey, but the Passaporto also grants access to , as well as content and special offers reserved for walkers on the Cammino del Salento.

These special offers are valid exclusively for holders of the Passaporto del Pellegrino.

 The Passaporto is personal: each walker must have their own.

It is therefore not possible to purchase a single Passaporto and use it to obtain special offers or discounts for an entire group.

A NETWORK BUILT UP OVER TIME

This guide, too, is the result of ongoing work.

Every accommodation, restaurant and business featured in these pages has been contacted, involved or has chosen to join the Cammino del Salento network.

Every day, we continue to seek out new establishments, recruit members, update information and build partnerships that may be useful to walkers.

The special offers are therefore not simply a list of businesses: they represent a network built up over time, through relationships and partnerships with local people and businesses.

A CONFIDENTIAL GUIDE

We ask you to respect the work that goes into this guide. The list of accommodation providers, restaurants and special offers is content reserved for holders of the Passaporto del Pellegrino and must not be made public.

We therefore ask you to:

 not forward this guide to people who do not hold the Passaporto;

 not publish the list of special offers on social media;

 not copy or reproduce the contents, even in part;

 not to publicly share confidential contact details, terms and special offers.

STAGE 1 – LECCE → SAN FOCA

25 km • 40 m ascent, 90 m descent • approx. 6 hours

The route starts in the heart of Lecce and, leaving the city's Baroque architecture behind, heads towards Acaya and the Cesine Nature Reserve. Through countryside and along footpaths, the sea gradually comes into view on the horizon until you reach San Foca.

The Cammino del Salento begins in Lecce, at Porta Napoli, where the route officially starts. Inside the Passaporto del Pellegrino, you'll already find the first stamp of the Cammino, depicting the she-wolf with the holm oak, the symbol of the city of Lecce.

Porta Napoli is an imposing triumphal arch marking the entrance to the city's historic centre. From here, it is well worth taking a short stroll through the heart of Lecce to admire the Palazzo dei Celestini, the Basilica di Santa Croce, Piazza Sant'Oronzo and its Anfiteatro Romano.

From Piazza Sant'Oronzo, continue to the left, towards Castello Carlo V. Please note: those following the Via dei Borghi should instead turn right, towards Porta San Biagio.

Once past the castle and the Fontana dell'Armonia, you'll reach the roundabout and continue towards via San Lazzaro. As you travel along via Merine, you'll gradually leave Lecce behind, reaching the small village of Merine and its picturesque square.

From here, the route continues along local country roads to Acaya, one of the most picturesque examples of a fortified town in the Salento region. Before continuing, we recommend visiting the village and heading to the nearby square with Torre dell'Orologio.

The route coincides with the Via Francigena only as far as Acaya, so you'll find dual signposting.

Once you've exited the village gate, turn left, following the orange arrow – the sign that guides walkers along the route. The route then runs alongside a golf course and leads towards the Cesine Nature Reserve.

Once you reach the sea, continue along the coast. At the 'Mediterraneo' kiosk, carry on along the dirt track until you reach Torre Specchia Ruggeri via a footpath.

The final few kilometres are along the coastal path and a short stretch of beach, surrounded by the scenery of the Adriatic coastline, until you reach the San Foca seafront, where the first stage ends.

👉 As you follow the Cammino del Salento southwards towards Santa Maria di Leuca, you'll always have the sea on your left: a natural landmark that will accompany you throughout the journey.

This first day takes walkers from the Baroque heart of Lecce to the Adriatic Sea, passing through small villages, the Salento countryside and the unspoilt natural beauty of the Cesine.

🍴 Dining tips in Lecce

Joyce: excellent traditional Salento cuisine, including a 'pilgrim's menu' for €20, near the Basilica di Santa Croce – just show your Passaporto del Pellegrino.

🍴 Dining tip for San Foca

La Concepita Restaurant – seafood cuisine (but also meat and vegetarian options), 10% discount on presentation of the Passaporto del Pellegrino.

Surf Bar: buy one draught beer, get the second one free! (On presentation of the Passaporto del Pellegrino)

Stamp point:

- Lecce: you'll find this one already in your Passaporto del Pellegrino
- On the via Merine: Azienda agricola li scucchi
- Merine: Bar O' Haras (opposite the church)
- 1 km before Acaya: Li Curmuni farm (in the steel cupboard, near the animal enclosure)
- Acaya: Bar/Market Josè (in the historic centre, opposite the church) or Bar Castello
- San Foca: Good Ice bar (stage stamp) + Info Point 'Marine di Melendugno' stamp (summer only)
- New stamp in San Foca: Versomare caffè
- New stamp in San Foca: Surf Bar on the seafront

 The water in Puglia is safe to drink: fill your water bottle in the evening at your accommodation or at the drinking fountain next to the Castello Carlo V and put it in the fridge in your room. During the first stage, you can top up your water supply in Lecce, Merine and Acaya.

 Please note: there are no water points for the final 12 km of the stage between Acaya and San Foca.

During the summer, some beach resorts along the coast are open and may offer an additional opportunity to top up your water supplies, but you shouldn't rely on them out of season.

We therefore recommend stocking up on plenty of water in Acaya before continuing on to San Foca, especially during the hottest months.

 Tip: download the route before setting off and save it on your phone, so you can use it even if you have no internet connection or an unstable one.

STAGE 2 – SAN FOCA → OTRANTO

24 km • 100 m ascent, 100 m descent • approx. 6.5 hours

One of the most spectacular days on the Via del Mare: Roca Vecchia, Grotta della Poesia (entrance fee applies), Torre dell'Orso, Le Due Sorelle and Torre Sant'Andrea, followed by pine forests, the Alimini Lakes and Baia dei Turchi, all the way to Otranto.

The route starts from San Foca, following the cycle path until you reach a small beach. Cross the beach and continue along a picturesque path behind the dunes, which leads towards Roca.

After admiring the tower standing on the islet, walk about 50 metres along the tarmac road to reach the Parco Archeologico di Roca Vecchia and the Grotta della Poesia.

Leaving the Grotta della Poesia behind, you rejoin the path and pass through a small gate, re-entering the route. Shortly afterwards, you reach Torre dell'Orso.

Descending the steps towards the sea opposite the 'Punto Timbro' bar, the trail continues along the road that runs alongside the pine forest, until you reach the entrance to the Torre dell'Orso coastal pine forest nature reserve.

You then follow the path towards the 'Due Sorelle' (Two Sisters), the two spectacular sea stacks rising from the sea which, according to an ancient legend, gave rise to their name.

The route continues along the coast, following the clearly marked path, until it reaches the majestic faraglioni di Torre Sant'Andrea, veritable sculptures shaped by nature.

Continuing along the coast, you arrive at the small bay dominated by the scoglio Tafaluro, also known as 'la Sfinge' due to its distinctive shape.

The route continues along the coast and, at Conca Specchiulla, enters the pine forest.

Follow the dirt track alongside the distinctive wooden fence until you reach Via degli Alimini.

After a short stretch along the beach, you reach the Laghi Alimini bridge. You then continue through the pine forest and, after passing another picnic area, arrive at the picturesque Baia dei Turchi.

The final few kilometres are along a local road, Via Santo Stefano, which eventually leads to Otranto, where the second stage ends.

An extraordinary day amongst beaches, pine forests, sea stacks and coves, featuring some of the most iconic spots on the Salento Adriatic coast.

Not to be missed in Otranto

- The Cathedral, with its medieval floor mosaic depicting the Tree of Life and scenes from the Bible and chivalric tales. It also houses the relics of the 800 martyrs of Otranto, who were killed in 1480 for refusing to renounce their faith.
- The Castello Aragonese, which overlooks the historic centre.

 Stamp points (there are 3 stamp points in Otranto, but the design is the same):

- Torre dell'Orso: Market California – Bar La Torre or Pasticceria Dentoni
- Il Moresco (bistro, before heading down to the seafront)
- Otrantfatto (artisan shop in the historic centre, ideal for buying souvenirs, where you'll also receive a free magnet on presentation of your Passaporto).
- Biglietteria del Castello (on the left as you enter)
- They have their own stamp at the Libreria Anima Mundi, where you can also receive a free notebook by showing your Passaporto del Pellegrino!

 Tips for dinner in Otranto

 Profumo di Mare, seafood and meat specialties, set menu and à la carte

STAGE 3 – OTRANTO → SANTA CESAREA TERME

22 km • 320 m ascent, 300 m descent • approx. 6 hours

From Otranto, the route follows a wild and sun-drenched coastline, passing the bauxite quarry, the Punta Palascia Lighthouse and Porto Badisco, all the way to Santa Cesarea Terme.

Following the signposted route, you reach Otranto Castle and, descending through the moat, arrive at Il porto. From here begins one of the most evocative stretches of the Via del Mare: an exhilarating coastal trek that takes walkers through wild landscapes and offers spectacular views of the Adriatic Sea.

Along the route, you'll come across the Torre del Serpe, the Masseria Orte, the picturesque little lake formed from a former bauxite quarry, and the Punta Palascia Lighthouse, the easternmost point of Italy. The route then continues towards Torre Sant'Emiliano, until it reaches Porto Badisco, a place linked to the figure of Aeneas and his journey to Italy, as recounted in Virgil's Aeneid.

Porto Badisco is also an ideal stop for a culinary break. The sea in this area is renowned for its sea urchins and other local specialities, which can be enjoyed in the village's eateries and nearby restaurants.

Leaving Porto Badisco, the route continues along footpaths and the Via Appia Calabro-Salentina, passing Masseria Grande, until you reach Santa Cesarea Terme.

⚠ The descent towards Santa Cesarea Terme is a bit challenging: take it slowly and preferably in daylight. If you're running late or in the event of rain, from Il Porto continue along the tarmac coastal road to the village.

A stretch with a wild and fascinating character, amongst cliffs, lighthouses, ancient farmsteads and places linked to the history and mythology of the Mediterraneo.

Here you can admire some of the town's most iconic landmarks, including the Chiesa Madre del Sacro Cuore, the Hebrew inscriptions on the façade of the Porta d'Oriente and the famous Palazzo Sticchi.

💡 Interesting fact: after the Second World War, Santa Cesarea provided refuge for thousands of Jews who had escaped the extermination camps. Traces of their presence can still be seen today in the Hebrew inscriptions on some of the façades.

📍 Stamp points:

- Bar Orte, before the bauxite quarry
- Punta Palascia Lighthouse: Caffettiere Errante
- Porto Badisco: Bar da Carlo
- Santa Cesarea: 'La vista' Bar next to the church, where you can also have dinner with a large salad, a puccia or a Lecce-style rustico.

🍴 Recommended dinner: Trattoria La Torre (pilgrim's menu €23 with Passaporto) or Bar "La vista", a stamp point next to the church, for a quick dinner.

STAGE 4 – S. CESAREA TERME → MARINA SERRA (OR TRICASE)

24 km • 484 m ascent, 481 m descent • approximately 7 hours

Passing through bays, cliffs and small seaside villages, the route takes you to Castro, Cala dell'Acquaviva and Tricase Porto, ending at the natural pool at Marina Serra.

Continuing along the Cammino del Salento and following the signposts, you'll reach the Archi area, from where the route continues along picturesque country lanes until you arrive in Castro.

Before continuing, it's well worth taking a stroll through the historic centre of this small village and then heading down towards Castro Marina.

Taking the tarmac coastal road, you reach the splendid Cala dell'Acquaviva, a small cove at the foot of the Serra di Marittima, characterised by cold water springs that flow directly into the sea.

The route continues along the Sentiero Natura Belvedere and the Sentiero Serra del Mito, surrounded by Mediterranean vegetation and offering splendid views of the coast. Along the way, you'll come across the Torre del Sasso and the characteristic pajare, examples of Salento's ancient rural architecture.

You have two options: carry on towards Tricase Porto and Marina Serra or take a detour towards Tricase town.

A stage rich in varied landscapes, including country roads, villages, coastal paths, cliffs and coves, leading to the spectacular natural pool at Marina Serra (or Tricase town).

Stamp points:

- Castro: Bar dei Messapi (near the belvedere, opposite the castle)
- Cala dell'Acquaviva: Bar Chiaro di Luna (near the sea, open in summer)
- Tricase harbour: 'Il porto' grocery shop (official) and Bar Bolina

💡 A possible alternative to Marina Serra

For those who prefer to shorten the stage, Tricase town can be a convenient alternative to Marina Serra for an overnight stay. The town offers numerous facilities useful to walkers, including B&Bs and hotels, restaurants, bars, chemists, a railway station and a hospital. You can reach Tricase town by following the Via dei Borghi and continue the next day towards Tiggiano.

STAGE 5 – MARINA SERRA (OR TRICASE) → LEUCA

20 km • 429 m ascent, 403 m descent • approx. 5 hours

The final day takes in some of the most breathtaking scenery on the route: coastal paths, caves, cliffs, the Sentiero delle Cipolliane and the Ciolo Canyon, all the way to Leuca.

Leaving Marina Serra behind, the route continues along the Sentiero del Nemico, reaching Marina di Novaglie.

If you have stayed overnight in Tricase town, continue instead towards Tiggiano and Corsano until you reach Marina di Novaglie.

From Novaglie, take the picturesque Sentiero delle Cipolliane, one of the most spectacular stretches of the Cammino del Salento. The famous caves, carved into the rock halfway between land and sea, line the route through a breathtaking landscape, suspended above the Adriatic, until you reach the Ciolo inlet.

Here, the rock faces meet at the great Ponte Ciolo, suspended some 40 metres above sea level. Once past the Ciolo, the route continues up to the right.

⚠ Warning: in the event of heavy rain, the section through the Ciolo Canyon should be avoided. In such conditions, it is advisable to continue along the tarmac coastal road.

From Ciolo, the route resumes towards Gagliano del Capo, passing through a picturesque landscape of caves, cliffs and sea views.

From Gagliano, the route continues along local roads, gently guiding the walker towards the final destination. Step by step, you reach Santa Maria di Leuca, where the route ends in front of the Santuario de Finibus Terrae.

It is here that the journey comes to an end. After days of walking, encounters, moments of silence and stunning scenery, you reach the point where the land seems to end and the sea stretches out into infinity.

The final stage is a journey through the wildest and most spectacular landscape of Salento, all the way to Leuca: the end of the earth and, at the same time, the beginning of a memory that lives on beyond the Cammino del Salento.

Stamp points:

- Ciolo: Bar L'Incanto (before the bridge)
- Ciolo: Bar Baia del Ciolo (immediately after the bridge)
- Gagliano: Bar Bielle Bielle
- Leuca: Bar De Finibus Terrae (next to the sanctuary)
- Leuca: Bar del Porto (below the steps)

Dinner: Leucalta Restaurant

Once you reach the Santuario de Finibus Terrae, as well as the monumental staircase and the view of the two seas, you can visit:

- the 'Cippo del km 0' stone, symbolising the end of the journey
- the belvedere, where a poem by Cosimo Russo is engraved:

"This is where the journey ends, where for a moment you feel at home and that moment lasts an eternity."

THE TESTIMONIUM OF THE Cammino del Salento

At the end of the Pilgrimage, you can receive the Official TESTIMONIUM of the Cammino del Salento for a contribution of €3.

You can request it at the religious souvenirs shop/tobacconist's next to the Sanctuary or at l'Hotel Terminal, on the seafront in Santa Maria di Leuca. You can also find it at the "Lobby Collective Hostel" in Lecce, if you're returning to Lecce for your final night.

⚠ PLEASE NOTE: the Cammino del Salento TESTIMONIUM is different from the one issued by the Sanctuary.

Our TESTIMONIUM is a fully illustrated, full-colour certificate, created by the Lecce-based artist Massimo Pasca, and serves as the official certificate for the Cammino del Salento route.

👉 When you request it, please state clearly that you would like the "TESTIMONIUM of the Cammino del Salento".

A small memento to celebrate a great journey: your arrival at Finibus Terrae
